The Montgomery County Office of Aging and Adult Services

(MCAAS) serves as the designated agency within Montgomery County to develop and provide a comprehensive and coordinated system of services for older and disabled adults. As the area agency on aging, MCAAS serves over 40,000 older Montgomery County residents each year through a variety of services and programs which assist individuals and families in preventing premature institutionalization.

It is also an integral part of the human service delivery system in Montgomery County to assist low-income adults, families and physically disabled adults, in achieving self-sufficiency and independence.
